'God is For Us'

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Lord God, you promise to never leave us or forsake us. You have called us to trust you in the best of times and the worst of times. Forgive our lack of faith when we are faced with challenges. Forgive us for ignoring you when times are pleasant. Father God, help us to walk with you and see the world in the vivid richness that you offer, as we bring to you our silent prayers of confession...

Assurance of Pardon

Creed from The Westminster Confession of Faith

God has given man a will, which by nature is free - it is not forced or necessarily inclined toward good or evil. Man fell into a state of sin by his disobedience and so completely lost his ability to will any spiritual good involving salvation. Consequently fallen man is by nature completely opposed to spiritual good, is dead in sin, and is unable by his own strength either to convert himself or to prepare himself for conversion.

When God converts a sinner and brings him into a state of grace, he frees him from his natural enslavement to sin. By God's grace alone, freely given, sinful man is enabled to will and to do what is spiritually good. However, since the old sinful nature also remains, the believer cannot consistently or perfectly will to do what is good but also wills evil.

Pastoral Prayer and Lord's Prayer

"Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen."

Doxology Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise Him all creatures here below. Praise Him above ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
