Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Lord, we need you to save us. We are crying out for your deliverance. Yet like the crowds on that first Palm Sunday, we may have our own agendas on what it means for you to save us. Forgive our attempts to control and push you into acting ‘our way’, and grant us the grace to follow after you instead. It is only when you are our King that we find our true security. . . . (silent prayers of confession)

Assurance of Pardon

*Creed from The Westminster Confession
The Lord Jesus undertook the role of being our mediator completely voluntarily. In order to discharge it, he was made under and perfectly fulfilled the law. He endured extremely severe torment in his soul and extremely painful suffering in his body. He was crucified and died. He was buried and remained under the power of death, but his body did not decay. On the third day he arose from the dead with the same body in which he suffered and with which he also ascended into heaven. There he sits at the right hand of his Father, interceding for believers. He will return to judge humanity and angels at the end of the world.

Sermon ‘The Hour Has Come’ Rev. Scott Graham

Pastoral Prayer and Lord’s Prayer

“Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.”

*Doxology Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise Him all creatures here below. Praise Him above ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
