UNITY

Meditation

A denial of the resurrection does not figure in early anti-Christian apologetics. That would be the obvious thing to attack if you wanted to stamp out this fledgling religion, right? But no one attacks it. Why do you think that is? I think it was because too many people knew it was true. There may have been bewilderment about its significance, but the fact of Jesus' resurrection was never denied. Jesus was clearly raised from the dead. The argument was simply about what that could possibly mean.

Prayer of Adoration (in unison)

Living Lord, on the first Easter you stood in the midst of your disciples as the conqueror of sin and death and spoke to them your peace. May you come to us in your risen power and make us glad with your presence, and breathe your Holy Spirit into our hearts that we may be strong to serve you and spread your good news, for the glory of your great name...

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
