Meditation

When you keep (God's unrelenting love) in mind, you can deal with an enormous amount of success as well as an enormous amount of failure without losing your identity, because your identity is that you are beloved by God. Long before your father and mother, your brothers and sisters, your teachers, your church, or any people touched you in a loving as well as in a wounding way – long before you were rejected by some person or raised by somebody else – that voice has been there always. 'I have loved you with an everlasting love.' That love is there before you were born and will be there after you die.

*Call to Worship

(based on Romans 10:14-15)

Dave Pawlos, Lay Assistant

Leader: How can people call for help if they don't know who to trust?

People: How can they know who to trust if they haven't heard of the One who can be trusted?

Leader: How can they hear if nobody tells them?

People: That's why the Bible proclaims, 'How beautiful are the feet of those who bring the good news of God!'

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Lord God, you are our Heavenly Father. You love us, and you are willing and able to protect and love us as your children. Your Son Jesus Christ declares your truth to us, lives it out, and is praying for us each moment. Forgive our pride and our fear, that we so often forget this and allow ourselves to worry or to act with selfishness or arrogance toward others. Help us to hear your words of guidance, correction, and forgiveness, as we come to you with our silent prayers. . .

Assurance of Pardon

*Creed

from The Westminster Confession of Faith

God the Father has ordained a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by Jesus Christ, to whom he has given all power and judgment. In that day not only will the apostate angels be judged, but all the people who have lived on earth will appear before the court of Christ to give an account of their thoughts, words, and actions, and be judged according to what they have done in the body, whether good or evil.
