Meditation

What helium does to a balloon, Jesus's yoke does to his followers. We are buoyed along in life by his endless gentleness and supremely accessible loneliness. He doesn't simply meet us at our place of need; he lives in our place of need. He never tires of sweeping us into his tender embrace. It is his very heart. It is what gets him out of bed in the morning.

Leader: Lord, open our lips.

‘What A Savior’

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Lord, you have called us to worship you. We gladly gather!

Yet as we praise you, our own inadequacy reminds us of how we have broken relationship with you.

Because we have sinned against you, even our worship fails to be what it could.

Often we simply go through the motions, failing to recognize how deeply you want to engage us.

Renew us, we pray, according to your steadfast love. Remind us of your covenant faithfulness, and have mercy on us in the name of Jesus Christ. . . (silent prayer of confession)

Assurance of Pardon

Creed

From The Westminster Confession

The Son of God, the second person of the Trinity, is truly the eternal God, of one substance and equal with the Father. In the fulness of time he took on himself the nature of man, with all the essential qualities and ordinary frailties of man – except that he was sinless. Jesus was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit in the womb of the Virgin Mary out of her substance. The two complete, perfect, and distinct natures, the Godhead and the manhood, were inseparably joined together in the one person of Jesus without being altered, disunited or jumbled. The person Jesus is truly God and truly man, yet one Christ, the only mediator between God and man.

“Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.”
