Meditation

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today, and forever.

~ Hebrews 13:8

If we think that this life is all there is to life, then there is no interpretation of our problems, our pain, not even of our privileges. But everything changes when we open up to the possibility that God's story is really our story too.

~ Max Lucado

Westminster Chimes and Announcements

Prelude

'Savior, Like A Shepherd Lead Us'

~ Bradbury

*Call to Worship (from Psalm 103, The Message) Sylvia Myers, Lay Assistant

Leader: As parents feel for their children, so God feels for those who fear him.

People: He knows us inside and out, he keeps in mind that we're made of dust.

Leader: Men and women don't live very long; like wildflowers they spring up and blossom; but a storm snuffs them out just as quickly, leaving nothing to show they were here.

People: God's love, though, is ever and always, eternally present to all who fear him as they follow his covenant ways. Let us worship God!

'Your Name Is Power'

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (In unison)

Lord, you have made us and you sustain us each day. Your love and power affect us in ways we cannot begin to comprehend. Lord, forgive us for the ways in which we fail to trust what You have told us about Yourself, and how we are to live. Please grant us the ability under your grace to love as you love, to forgive as you have forgiven, and to walk with courage and hope each day. . . (silent prayers of confession)

Assurance of Pardon

Creed

from The Westminster Confession

His human nature being thus united to the divine, the Lord Jesus was sanctified and anointed with the Holy Spirit beyond all measure. He has in him all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, and in him it pleased the Father that all fulness should dwell. God's purpose was that Jesus, being holy, harmless, undefiled, and full of grace and truth, should be completely equipped to execute the office of mediator and guarantor. Jesus did not take this office himself but was called to it by his Father, who gave and commanded him to use all power and judgement.
