Meditation

Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and a delight of my heart, for I am called by your name, O Lord, God of hosts.

~ Jeremiah 15:16

Every part of Scripture is God-breathed and useful one way or another – showing us truth, exposing our rebellion, correcting our mistakes, training us to live God's way. Through the Word we are put together and shaped up for the tasks God has for us.

~ 2 Timothy 3:16-17, The Message

Westminster Chimes and Announcements

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Lord God, you call us to believe. Yet we are often impatient, and snicker at your promises. You call us to trust, yet we are often fearful, and doubt your faithfulness. Forgive our resistance to your purposes, and the times we default to selfish decisions. Help us to step out and believe that joy truly exists through you, as we bring to you our silent prayers. . .

Assurance of Pardon

Creed

From The Westminster Confession

God, who created everything, also upholds everything. He directs, regulates, and governs every creature, action, and thing, from the greatest to the least, by his completely wise and holy providence. He does so in accordance with his infallible foreknowledge and the voluntary, unchangeable purpose of his own will, all to the praise of the glory of his wisdom, power, justice, goodness, and mercy.

Just as the providence of God in general extends to every creature, so, in a very special way it takes care of his church and orders all things for its good.
