“Join us for a drink of Living Water”
October 24, 2021

We welcome you to the worship of God Almighty this Lord's Day. It is our intention to bring glory and honor to Him. God enters our time of worship and we remember this time belongs to Him. Your Worship Commission

UNITY

Preparation in Silence

Jesus gave up all his treasure in heaven, in order to make you his treasure – for you are a treasured people (1 Peter 2:9-10). When you see him dying to make you his treasure, that will make him yours. Money will cease to be the currency of your significance and security, and you will want to bless others with what you have. To the degree that you grasp the gospel, money will have no dominion over you. Think on his costly grace until it changes you into a generous person.

Call to Worship (from Psalm 25) Tammy Popham, Lay Assistant

Leader: Show us your ways, O Lord, and teach us your paths.

People: Guide us in your truth and teach us, for you are God our Savior.

Leader: Good and upright is the Lord; by His grace he instructs sinners in his ways.

People: He guides the humble in what is right and teaches them his way.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Lord, we confess how quickly we see other people's faults, and how slow we are to recognize our own. We are willing to receive hope, joy and forgiveness from your hands, but we are fearful of offering the source of our strength to others who need You. Lord, please forgive us and allow us to be more forgiving, as we come before you today. . . (silent prayers of confession)

Assurance of Pardon

*Creed from the Westminster Confession of Faith

The Old Testament in Hebrew and the New Testament in Greek were directly inspired by God and have been kept uncontaminated throughout time by his special care and providence. They are therefore authentic and are to be the church's ultimate source of appeal in every religious controversy. The original languages of the Bible, however, are not understood by all of God's people. But all of God's people have a right to and interest in the Bible, and God himself commands them to read it thoroughly with awe and reverence for him. Consequently the Bible should be translated into the native language of every people to whom it is introduced. Then, the word of God will live fully in everyone; everyone will be able to worship God in an acceptable way; and all believers may have hope through the endurance and encouragement of the Bible.

Pastoral Prayer and Lord's Prayer

"Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen."

*Doxology Praise God from whom all blessings flow; praise Him all creatures here below. Praise Him above ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.
