Meditation

The gospel says: 'You don't live in a mechanical world ruled by necessity; you don't live in a random world ruled by chance; you live in a world ruled by the God of Exodus and Easter. He will do things in you that neither you or your friends would have believed possible.' ~ Eugene Peterson

CHARITY

*Call to Worship (from Psalm 30) Tammy Popham, Lay Assistant

Leader: Sing to the Lord, everyone – praise His holy name!

People: For his anger lasts only a moment, but his favor lasts a lifetime;
weeping may remain for a night, but rejoicing comes in the morning.

Leader: You turned my wailing into dancing; you removed my sackcloth and clothed me with joy, that my heart may sing to you.

People: O Lord our God, we will give you thanks forever!

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Lord, we confess how quickly we see other people's faults, and how slow we are to recognize our own. We are willing to receive hope, joy and forgiveness from your hands, but we are fearful of offering the source of our strength to others who need You. Lord, please forgive us and allow us to be more forgiving, as we come before you today. . . (silent prayers of confession)

Assurance of Pardon

Creed from the Westminster Confession of Faith
The Old Testament in Hebrew and the New Testament in Greek were directly inspired by God and have been kept uncontaminated throughout time by his special care and providence. They are therefore authentic and are to be the church's ultimate source of appeal in every religious controversy. The original languages of the Bible, however, are not understood by all of God's people. But all of God's people have a right to and interest in the Bible, and God himself commands them to read it thoroughly with awe and reverence for him. Consequently the Bible should be translated into the native language of every people to whom it is introduced. Then, the word of God will live fully in everyone; everyone will be able to worship God in an acceptable way; and all believers may have hope through the endurance and encouragement of the Bible.

"Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen."
