“Join us for a drink of Living Water”

October 3, 2021

We welcome you to the worship of God Almighty this Lord's Day. It is our intention to bring glory and honor to Him. God enters our time of worship and we remember this time belongs to Him. Your Worship Commission

Meditation

Researchers found that the most isolated people were three times more likely to die than those with strong relational connections. People who had bad health habits (such as smoking, poor eating habits, obesity, or alcohol use) but strong social ties lived significantly longer than people who had great health habits but were isolated. In other words, it is better to eat Twinkies with good friends than to eat broccoli alone.

~ John Ortberg

Our relationship with each other is the criterion the world uses to judge whether our message is truthful – Christian community is the final apologetic.

*Call to Worship

(from Psalm 86)

Russ Ewing, Lay Assistant

Leader: Hear us, Lord, and answer us, for we are poor and needy.

Bring joy to your servants, for we put our trust in you.

People: Among the ‘gods’ there is none like you, Lord; no deeds can compare with yours. All the nations you have made will come and worship before you and bring glory to your name.

Leader: Teach us your way, Lord, that we may rely on your faithfulness; give us undivided hearts, that we may fear your name.

People: Show your strength on behalf of your servants, and save us as you saved those who have gone before us.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (In unison)

Lord God, you see us from the inside out, and you know what we are made of. You know the ways in which we try to hide from you, from ourselves, and from others. Yet you do not reject us. Instead, you call to us to return to you. Lord, forgive our fear, our selfishness, and our tendency to talk badly about others. We want to be the community of faith, hope, and love that your Holy Spirit can empower us to be. Hear our cries as we come before your throne of grace. . . (silent prayers of confession)

Assurance of Pardon

Creed

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
