Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Almighty God, you are the giver of every good thing. Forgive us for ignoring your gifts, misusing your gifts, and even abusing your gifts, which include the people around us. We repent of our sense of entitlement, our lack of generosity, and our ingratitude. Grant us your mercy and forgiveness, and may thankfulness grow in our hearts as we come before you in prayer. . .

Assurance of Pardon

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

Creed

from the Westminster Confession of Faith

Those who truly believe in the Lord Jesus, who honestly love him and try to walk in good conscience before him, may in this life be assured with certainty that they are in a state of grace. They may also rejoice in the hope of the glory of God, and they will never be ashamed of that hope.

This certainty is not based on the fallible hope of guesswork or probabilities. Rather, it is the infallible assurance of faith, established on the divine truth of the promises of salvation. There is also the inner evidence of spiritual insight, given to us by God, to which these promises are directed. And there is the testimony of the Spirit of adoption, witnessing with our spirits that we are the children of God. This Spirit is the pledge of our inheritance. By him we are sealed until the day of redemption.
