(From Psalm 96)

John Myers, Lay Assistant

Leader: Sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth.

People: Sing to the Lord, and praise his name; proclaim his salvation day after day.

Leader: For great is the Lord and most worthy of praise; he is to be feared above all 'gods.'

People: Let the heavens rejoice and let the earth be glad; let the sea resound and all that is in it.

Leader: Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy; they will sing before the Lord, for he comes to judge the earth.

People: He will judge the world in righteousness and the peoples in his truth.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Lord, you have created a spiritual hole in our hearts that is designed to only be filled by You. Yet we're not sure you can really give us what we need, so we try to satisfy this space with food, power, comfort, money, gossip, or other acts and things that seem to promise salvation. Yet only You can save us. Show us where we're relying on ourselves instead of you, and grant us the grace to change and to trust you as we come before your throne of grace in prayer. . . (silent prayers of confession)

Assurance of Pardon

**Gloria Patri*

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be world without end. Amen.

**Creed from The Westminster Confession*

The Lord Jesus undertook the role of being our mediator completely voluntarily. In order to discharge it, he was made under and perfectly fulfilled the law. He endured extremely severe torment in his soul and extremely painful suffering in his body. He was crucified and died. He was buried and remained under the power of death, but his body did not decay. On the third day he arose from the dead with the same body in which he suffered and with which he also ascended into heaven. There he sits at the right hand of his Father, interceding for believers. He will return to judge men and angels at the end of the world.
