

“Prince of Peace”
Isaiah 9:6, John 14:25-27

The phrase, “Prince of Peace” can be translated, “_____ for _____”
The state of _____ experienced as the result of _____.

Westminster Confession of Faith, Chapter 20 on Christian Freedom & Freedom of Conscience says, “Christ has purchased for believers under the gospel freedom from the guilt of sin, from the condemning wrath of God, and from the curse of the moral law. He has also freed them from the evil world we live in, from enslavement to Satan, from the dominion of sin, the evil of afflictions, the sting of death, [and] the victory of the grave.”

The first way that Christ is the Prince of Peace is by _____ for _____.

Craig Groeschel says, ‘Peace isn’t found in the absence of problems. True peace is found in the _____ of _____.

The second way that Christ is our Prince of Peace is through the _____ who _____ within _____.

Philippians 4:9

The third way Christ is the Prince of Peace, or the “Official for Wellbeing” is through _____ impacting and _____ our _____.
