Meditation

On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, ‘Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.’” Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Call to Confession

Jud Herter, Lay Assistant

Prayer of Confession

O Lord our God, We come to you thankful that you have saved us by your Son's death, from our own Grave, and in raising Him you show us that we too have been and will be raised. We confess that we have sinned and continue to fall short of your will for us. Even while you are giving us a new nature we struggle to trust and obey, following the pattern of our old life even while we try to figure out how to live in the new one you have given. Forgive our sins O God and dress us in Your Righteousness that we can live in ways that are pleasing to you. In Jesus Name we pray, Amen... (silent prayers of confession)

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
